Subject: Your memo of August 17 re: mutual assistance treaties
I have a thought about the language you quoted from the treaty with the U.K. ,Article 7.2, to wit: "The Requesting Party shall not use or disclose any information or evidence obtained under this Treaty...."(my emphasis) Since the treaty was not in effect in 1963, and in fact the treaty has not yet come into effect, the restrictions it imposes do not apply to material dated pre-1995. Right?
