Subject: Contents of Tim Wray Fax Cover Sheet

Jeremy asked me to compose what will go on the FAX cover sheet from him to Tim Wray:Here goes:"Tim,Here are seven (7) draft letters I would like you to review. The last three are lists of specific, detailed subjects for document searches which will not be mailed out by ARRB as of yet; however, we would like your "take" on these. Any comments will be appreciated--don't be bashful.The first four items on the list below are products which we want to mail out this Friday if possible, so your comments on these first four faxes are needed more urgently. Is the tone appropriate? Do the timelines for action portray the proper sense of urgency, and are they also "realistic" at the same time?FAX ITEM # DESCRIPTION #1 ARRB letter to DOD P.O.C. requesting DOD-wide and Navy and Air Force Service-wide directives #2 ARRB DRAFT Service-Wide Directive (which will be an attachment to all 3 letters-DOD, Navy and Air Force) #3 ARRB letter to Navy P.O.C. #4 ARRB letter to Air Force #5 Request for Addtl. Info from DOD #6 Request for Addtl. Info from USMC #7 Request for Addtl. Info from Air ForceLooking forward to hearing from you!Warm regards,Jeremy
