Subject: Giving Blood
I had scheduled a blood donation for today, but forgot about it and didn't go. The Red Cross has left a message on my voice-mail asking me if I'd like to reschedule. I guess I'll try to do so, and let you know. Also, as a reminder, tomorrow (Thursday) is my wife's foot operation and I will be leaving early (though I don't know exactly when -- probably 3 to 3:30ish) to pick her up and take her home afterwards).
