Subject: a couple of things

1) I sincerely apologize for the apparent lack of ability to get computer training for you. We'll talk about this in general at some point. However, you are conversant enough in Windows and Word Perfect that I'll show you at 9:00 today how to prepare the weekly update.2) I'm meeting with Dennis and Doug at 10:00 am today in Dennis' office to discuss the "petition" I put on your desk. They will work the federal records aspect of the request, initially I'll handle the private/state/local aspect, but I'll want you to get involved at some point. Skim through the petitio for today's meeting. The purpose of today's meeting is to draw up a rough assessment of what is realistic in the petition, what isn't, etc. In short we'll do a cost-benefit anaylsis and decide where to go from here.
