Subject: Request for a Short Table
Since you told me I could ask...I am!What I need is a short table (btwn 37"-56" wide), which is about the same width as the other table you provided. A 56" table is preferable to a 37" table, but then I don't know what sizes these things are available in.The short table is for a "display" (classified at this time...you'll see what it is later!), and I think I'll use the long one for books.No rush, OK? And this is certainly on a "not to interfere basis" with your other duties. Congratulations on being named as "Assistant Computer Czar" .
