Subject: Congressional recipients of notices
Even though we're used to dealing with the House Oversight Committee (which owns the records of HSCA), our actual oversight committees (according to our statute) are the Government Reform and Oversight Committee in the House (the old Gov Ops Comm.) and the Governmental Affairs Committee in the Senate. These are the folks we have to notify and, even though we've only processed House records so far, I would read the statute as requiring us to notify both oversight committees when any Congressional documents are reviewed. The other addresses are gravy, insofar as the statute is concerned. We should certainly mail to Thomas and Fazio (House Oversight), cc-ing Buhler and Howell. Gingrich and Gephardt are fine with me, though they might be superfluous. In any case, I've sent all these addresses to Chet. If you want to drop the Speaker and Minority Leader, let Chet know.
