Subject: Charles Bronson

I think you said FINCEN called on Friday and said they could not locate a Social Security Death file on Bronson. Did they say anything about running a Lexis/Nexis check for his obituary? (I asked them to do a check in the fax I sent last week.)If they didn't run the Lexis check please call Alex Treadaway and ask him to have that done as soon as they can. Please record the call last week from FINCEN at issue 62 as well as the call you make today to them.For a statewide search of vital statistics try calling the appropriate office in the state capital, Austin. You might try calling the Secretary of State's Office to find out the actual name of the department that handles such records statewide.
