Subject: Referral Sheets copied from NARA
It had occurred to me that it might be useful to put NARA's referral sheets into binders (not unlike what Kris and Matt have done down at the vault). This would make them a bit more accessible now that folks will be working regularly with HSCA stuff. Additionally, I was thinking I might make my own copies of the sheets for smaller or more minor agencies (not the FBI or CIA, for instance) since it appears I may have some responsibility for getting those documents (eventually) to the Board for review. Then I could keep this reduced set with me at/near my desk. Any thoughts, concerns?
