Subject: Holiday lunch

We may have some re-thinking to do. I called Red, Hot and Blue in Rosslyn and found out that they don't make reservations for less than 15 persons, for which they then do a buffet (I didn't ask how much per person). They're already fully booked with such groups for the back room, including that nice round table, for the date we wanted--Wed., Dec. 20--although we could try around 1:30 or so, after these groups clear out. Of course there's no guarantee they won't take other large groups for the later time as well. Any ideas? We could go somewhere else, or we could go after Christmas (anyone for a New Year's celebration?).It could be fun to have a big Chinese feast--if anyone knows of a good place in the area. But that gets us back again to the old question--anyone know of any good Chinese restaurants in the area? Perhaps I can check out a couple from Zagats tomorrow.
