Subject: Anna Nelson's Letter to the Editor
Anna informed me this morning that she sent a Letter to the Editor of The Washington Post in response to the Goldfarb piece in Sunday's Post. I have not seen the letter, and she informed me after it was sent. As she described it, it seems she wanted to state that the Board is not reinvestigating the assassination and is not mandated to solve the case. She is going to get me a copy of the letter when she comes in on Tuesday. Anna acknowledged, after the fact today, that she should have talked to me first. I expressed, in no uncertain terms, my displeasure with her writing the letter, on ARRB letterhead, without discussion with any of us. Needless to say, it was not a comfortable conversation.
