Subject: Leave Totals

Linda Jacobs called me over two pay periods ago with some good news...she had finally gotten my leave figures transferred to her from my old personnel office, and left me a phone message to that effect, as I had requested. However, I have now received two leave-and-earnings statements since her phone call, and the totals have NOT yet been added to my pay stub, which is where the "rubber meets the road," so to speak. When I return to work on January 4th, I will take a close look at my pay stub, and if the totals are not yet added on, then I will send you a tickler attached to this e-mail and ask you to pursue it for me. Because of the first furlough, and now this one, I'm not really too sure how much time is a reasonable amount of time to wait, so I'll just wait for now to see what my first pay stub looks like in January. I'll let you know in January if my figures from my old job have not been added to my pay stub yet.
