Subject: USSS Material at LBJ Library
I just spoke with Steve Tilley. He said that the USSS materials in Box 15 of the LBJ Library collection have been open since the mid-1970s. Steve said he confirmed this point by conferring with Nancy Smith last Thursday. He has also spoken to John Machado. Steve told Machado that under President Clinton's declassification order all copies of the materials that have been made by researchers over a period of 20 years would have to be reclaimed. That is not possible nor are these materials Security Classified, which is the only category of documents that could be reclaimed.
