Subject: recently released documents mentioned in your letter

Body: Mr. Staser:Thank you for your letter received in our office on January 16, 1996.I can send you copies of the five FBI documents released on December 28, 1995 because the volume is so small. However, I will not be able to send you the 37 FBI docs. or the 197 CIA docs. that were released on December 20, 1995. As of January 1, 1996, we stopped making copies available due to increasing numbers of documents, thus cost.For a fee, the Archives will make copies of these documents for you. Contact:JFK LiaisonNational Archives and Records AdministrationWashington, DC 20408 You also requested more information about our organization. I hope you found the information packet I sent you to be informative. As it stands right now, I do not have anything else like that to send to you. I suggest you continue reading our press releases, advisories, etc. on your e-mail, and if you have any specific questions about our organization, please do not hesitate to contact me.I will send the five FBI documents today, and thank you for your continued interest in the work of the Review Board.Sincerely,Eileen A. SullivanAssistant Press and Public Affairs Officer
