Subject: Records From Barbara Rust Of NARA's Southwest Region

INCOMING CORRESPONDENCE Issue # 8Document's Author: Dave Montague/ARRB Date Created: 01/23/96Sender of the Correspondence Sender's Name: Barbara Rust Of NARA's Southwest RegionAgency Name: Description of the Correspondence Correspondence Type: Date: 01/23/96Subject: Records From Barbara Rust Of NARA's Southwest RegionFull Text or Description of the Correspondence:Based on: NOTES Issue # 8Document's Author: Anne Buttimer/ARRB Date Created: 09/13/95Notes: Steve Tilley called this morning in response to my question about whom I should call to request that all the Federal Court files from the Clay Shaw prosecution spin-off cases should be directed to. He told me to contact Barbara Rust, NARA Southwest Region, PO Box 6216, Fort Worth, TX 76115, telephone 817/334-5525. He said to tell her that the JFK Collection has the Marina Oswald court case file, the Joe King court case file and the In Re: One Mannlicher-Carcano case file but has nothing from the Eastern District of Louisiana, the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals, and the US Supreme Court cases filed as a result of Garrison's prosecution of Clay Shaw. ANDNOTES Issue # 8Document's Author: Anne Buttimer/ARRB Date Created: 11/02/95Notes: To:David Marwell/ARRB From: Anne Buttimer/ARRB Date:11/02/95 01:54:03 PMSubject= Supreme Court records:"To memorialize our conversation this morning:Steve Tilley told me yesterday that Barbara Rust at NARA's Southwest Records Center is sending him photocopies of all the Federal Court cases that arose from the Garrison matter. Steveencountered a problem with the Supreme Court clerk's office (Mr. Plotkin) with the one and one-half boxes of briefs from a case Clay Shaw's attorney's filed on his behalf post mortem.According to Steve the Supreme Court sent the pleadings file from the case to NARA but will not send the briefs. Mr. Plotkin is refusing to copy or microfilm the briefs file at the Court and will not allow the boxes to go to NARA for them to copy/film them. Steve said that intervention by the Review Board is the only way to get the records, or copies, into the Collection. * I gave the materials to Noelle for shipment to Steven Tilley at Archives II; the box of records was placed in the scif for safe keeping until transfer to Noelle.
