Subject: Work Projects

Here's some status: a. Matrix: in progress--maybe 2 more working days on that, but they won't be Wednesday or Thursday (see below); b. DOD documents in HSCA collection: Joe Freeman and I intend to go to NARA II Thursday and ascertain the true status of these items (were they really physically referred, or are they just "declared" to be in a referred status, but not physicaly referred?; c. Wednesday: Jeremy talked to Joe and I about a Hot Project: namely, to determine what assistance the U.S. asked of, and received from, the USSR (both Warren Commission and HSCA), to find out whether the actual documents received are in the JFK collection, and then to write a memo regarding same for Jeremy to use as a tool in his dealings with DOS. He asked for a volunteer and I volunteered, since Joe is about triple-loaded right now. Jeremy asked me to jump into this Wednesday and give him an idea by COB Wed. as to how long it would take. END
