Subject: I talked to Bud...
apparently our original contract did not include the PCI2000 interface module. He can order us one for $215 and get it in about 3-5 days. Should I give him the go ahead? Also, Chet, if you can check the software that Max gave us and see if it is PCD3000 version 3.24 Bud will try to get us an updated version of the manual. He will try to get it from Napco free, but if not it will be about $10-$15.Bud is calling me back Tuesday afternoon.
Body: If I can get the info and the go ahead by then it would be appreciated. Thanks.
