Subject: PhD Thesis
At a meeting in the Pentagon yesterday I heard about a recent PhD thesis having to do with Army domestic surveillance activities. Unfortunately, no author or exact title was given. However, my source said he thinks it was written by a woman and that it may even have been picked up for publication by Greenwood Press. I'll try to get a more precise fix on this thing, but perhaps the next time you're at the LOC you could check to see if they have a thesis database that might cough this up for us. . . Thx.
