Body: What do you think we should do?To: David_Marwell @ jfk-arrrb.gov @ Internetcc: (bcc: David Marwell/ARRB)From: rnelson @ connect.reach.net (Rick Nelson) @ Internet @ WORLDCOM Date: 02/15/96 06:14:11 PM CSTSubject: CANADIAN DOCUMENTSDear Mr. Marwell,Gaeton Fonzi & Joe Backes suggested I drop you a line. I recently sent themcopies of RCMP documents recently released by the National Archives in Ottawa.The Canadian Archives have in their possession a file (63-HQ-1180-1-Q-112)onthe JFK assassination. About 130 partialy censored pages have so far beenreleased from this file. The remainder (several more pages)is stayingclassified.I have been told informally by the folks at the archives that any formal requestby me to gain access to the classified pages and uncensor the one's Ialready havewould probably get me nowhere.1) Is the review board aware that such documents exist? 2) Do you already have access to them?If the answer is no to both questions, would the review board be interestedin helpingme gain uncensored access to them.I await further instuctions,Regards,Rick NelsonWellington, OntarioCanada
