Subject: Richard Schweiker and possible assassination records

It is worth remembering that when Gaeton Fonzi -- in his pre-HSCA days -- was running around for Schweiker interviewing Veciana, Odio, etc, he did so not as a Church Committee staffer -- which he never became -- but as a member of Schweiker's personal office staff. Fonzi continued to pursue the JFK assassination issue for Schweiker into the second half of 1976, after the Church Committee closed down but before he was hired by the HSCA. It stands to reason then that Schweiker had non-Church Committee assassination records in the files of his personal Senate office, probably including early Fonzi material. Perhaps Schweiker should be contacted about records? I know that Anne had asked FinCen to try and locate Schweiker (seems to me last I heard of him he was the chief lobbyist/president of some big insurance/health care group here in Washington); I don't know if we ever contacted him. But it would be important to make clear to him that we understood that he probably has personal, as opposed to Church Committee, records for us.
