Subject:	Approval of reviewed documents
Body:	I am making the database more secure in who can send documents to the board for review.I need some guidance on the following.For most teams it is clear that the documents flow from a person to a team leader. For example: from Chris to Mary and then to the board.But what about Joan and Joe. Do they need to have their documents sent on to a second person for review? If so Whom..Thanks for your answer to this question.
