Subject: FBI testimony before House Judiciary Subcommittee, Oct. '75
FYI. In the Church Committee boxes I came across a 21-page statement, dated 10/21/75, from FBI Deputy Associate Director James B. Adams to the House Subcommittee on Civil and Constitutional Rights (the so-called Edwards Committee) which seems mainly to concern itself with the destruction of the Hosty note. I copied it if you want it. Also in the collection is an undated 6-page statement by Shanklin submitted to the same Subcommittee (I'm not sure I copied that one, but if you want it, let me know.)Jeremy: since we now have a specific date and document that we can reference as proof, perhaps it is time we called/wrote the House Judiciary Committee on obtaining more information on who testified, getting copies, etc. I'll await your feedback.
