Subject: Federal Register

Body: I called the Federal Register to ask about publishing Word Perfect tables The woman I talked to, Ms. Payne, said that Word Perfect tables are fine, even if we have 6 columns and over 50 rows. We can send the notice over in electronic form, as we do with other notice documents. She said that, once in a while, GPO has problems translating the tables into typeset, but that GPO handles it and gets the tables into print somehow.
