Subject: Dr. Robert Karnei
I called Dr. Karnei again today to see whether we could get a commitment out of him on when he can come to Washington to spend 2 or 3 hours (or so) talking with us. He had not had time yet to focus on this matter, and had not yet identified a period when he could find a relief for his duties which would allow him to be away from the hospital where he works.I did use this opportunity, however, to suggest three windows to him (which are all periods when you will be in the office, and available, Jeremy):29 April-03 May;15-17 May;20-21 May.My goal is to set up our interview with him, if possible, prior to the deposition of Dr. Finck.He will be on vacation next week (the week of 8-12 April). After he returns to work, he will figure out when he can come to Washington and let us know. There are two possible scenarios:-He has a meeting at AFIP anyway on May 22, so he might bite on the 20-21 May timeframe; if so, we may only have to pay for a hotel;-If he comes at another time, he said he would have to fly out of Roanoke airport to National Airport the afternoon prior to our meeting, stay at a hotel overnight, meet with us the next morning, and fly back to Roanoke in the afternoon. I will keep all informed.
