Subject: Overview of CIA records

When time permits (review of records comes first), could you make sure that the CIA team devotes some time to completing their overview of CIA records? I would like to develop a plan to attack the upcoming records in the most efficient manner possible. When analysts are not reviewing documents here, let's try to get them to the CIA in order to get a better feel for what is coming up. It would be helpful if you could include any resulting analysis in your status report for the CIA.Thanks.
