Subject: CIA/New Orleans leads

I knocked on your team room door earlier to tell you about a CIA Project lead I found when I was reviewing Anne's New Orleans file. Rather than risk interrupting your meeting with Mary again, I thought I would just e-mail it to you. On June 14, 1995, Jim DiEugenio told Anne (in a phone interview) that he thinks Alan Campbell, who was a Guy Banister confidante, is currently connected to the CIA through his work for a subsidiary of the Agency for International Development. Campbell apparently moved to the West Coast several months ago. DiEugenio told Anne that he is still trying to contact Campbell to arrange an interview with him.
