Subject: New Records (!): More on Max Holland, NARA and Sen. Internal Security Subc. (Eastland)

How do you think we should proceed?To: David Marwell/ARRB, Jeremy Gunn/ARRB, Tom Samoluk/ARRBcc: Mary McAuliffe/ARRB From: Joseph Freeman/ARRB Date: 05/07/96 03:37:34 PMSubject: New Records (!): More on Max Holland, NARA and Sen. Internal Security Subc. (Eastland)Matt Fulgham has done some preliminary checking on Max Holland's lead, re: Sen. Jim Eastland's Internal Security Subcommittee of the Senate Judiciary Committee. Matt has found 3 subcommittee executive sessions in which the assassination is discussed. He has also found what appears to be testimony before the subcommittee by Ruth Paine and Abba Schwartz (DOS), circa Nov/Dec '63. Schwartz's testimony apparently concerns the workings of the passport office.Matt's game plan, after consulting with Steve, is to continue poking around with the existing finding aides, and then to contact the Senate Judiciary Committee and tell them about the JFK Act, etc. Matt is going to keep me posted and have me take a look at the stuff when he's a little further along.I don't know what protocol demands in terms of getting back to Max Holland or (to cite another instance) in alerting Nina Noren about State's equities. I presume, since NARA is doing all the work on this so far, that we should defer to them in alerting folks or, at least, coordinate with them before informing people.If anyone wants me to do something more on this, let me know.
