Subject: Review Of A British Film Re: Dealey Plaza & The Grassy Knoll
Dallas ProjectInterview REPORT Issue # 9Document's Author: Dave Montague/ARRB Date Created: 05/14/96Attendees: John Judge, Doug Horne & Dave MontagueTopic: Review Of A British Film Re: Dealey Plaza & The Grassy KnollSummary of the Interview Judge called me recently & brought a VHS tape of the assassination to the office so that the Review Board may use it in its audio-visual efforts. It is a copy of a London filmmaker's film of the assassination. Judge is supposed to provide me with that person's contact information. He said he doesn't think its not a new record but wanted to make sure we knew about it regardless. The tape is labeled: ""GRASSY KNOLL" -N.T.S.C." and includes a short segment of the knoll area at the time of the assassination with what could be interpreted as an area of light appearing on the knoll. This light could only be captured by slowing the tape down to frame-by-frame movements. The assassination segment repeats several times, followed by footage of a reenactment showing a sniper firing rounds with a rifle while being timed. I called Charlie Mayn of NARA at 301-713-7410 so I can have a copy of the tape made; he will not be able to copy it until after 05/20/96. * The tape is in the scif for safekeeping until it can be returned to Judge.
