Subject: Visit to Archives II Monday Morning

This is just to remind you that in accordance with David's tasking, I'm going up to Archives II on the 10 A.M. shuttle Monday morning to review Steve Tilley's file on all the folks who have ever looked at the autopsy photos and X-Rays. (The purpose is to try to figure out if the claim attributed to Knudsen (that there was some kind of investigation in 1988, in which he was shown photographs) can possibly be independently corroborated. While there, he wanted me to take a good look at that entire file and peruse the "whole universe" of who has looked at those items.)Originally, I was going to take the 9 A.M. shuttle but then remembered that Monday is team meeting day, and we have a new team member now. But I will still want to roll out of here NLT 0950. (This is the "J" part of my ENTJ personality in evidence...my obsessive-compulsive desire to make lists, manage time, and chart every minute of my day.)
