Subject: Letter for ARRB Intern John Ellis...

As we discussed, one of Chris' interns named John Ellis will accompany me to FINCEN on 05/28/96...They require a letter (which is really routine for them) from our security officer acknowledging the purpose of the visit...I've enclosed the following items which they've indicated are needed:-ARRB interns are authorized to perform activities under the supervision of ARRB employees-John Thomas Ellis is an ARRB intern & his background is as follows: DOB= [Screened by: NARA RD-F on October 12, 2016 according to the John F. Kennedy Records Collection Act of 1992, 44 U.S.C. 2107, Section 6(3)]; SS#=[Screened by: NARA RD-F on October 12, 2016 according to the John F. Kennedy Records Collection Act of 1992, 44 U.S.C. 2107, Section 6(3)]; attends Indiana University in Bloomington; is a Sophomore majoring in Computer Science-He will perform research on the world-wide-web using ONLY stand-alone systems-He will not have access to any classified material-He will work through FINCEN's Office of Tactical Operations (OTO)-He will be escorted at all times by Investigator David R. Montague who is an OTO detailee from the ARRB-He has completed the form authorizing an abbreviated background clearance (I have a copy)We can carry the letter with us on Tuesday & it should be addressed to:The Director of FINCEN2070 Chain Bridge RoadVienna, VA 22182I think he'll really enjoy his experience there as well as perform some very tedious research over the net without it costing the Review Board any funds...Thanks!!!!...Dave
