Subject: Joe Hagan

Hagan called and made the following points:1. He has tried to contact Thomas Robinson with no success. The address that he has for Robinson is apparently no longer valid, and he has left repeated and unanswered messages on a phone machine attached to the last number he has for Robinson. He plans to call someone this weekend who was very close to Robinson and hopes that person can furnish a good address. 2. He would like to know (although he realizes wemay not be able to tell him) the origin of the Gawler records that were missing from his files. I told him that I did not know the answer but I would get back to him.3. He said that he did not know the origin of the "Funeral Arrangement" chronology that was in his files. He felt certain that it had been compiled by the Gawlers with the help of secondary sources.
