Subject: Jeremy's JFK Library file
I have this, whenever you'd like to see it (Jeremy says he's talked to you about it already. Something about White House Signals files). In reading through the Library's National Security Files listings, it occurs to me that DOD might have some Special Group records (either CI or Augmented), to fill in for the years that are missing there (much also missing at CIA as well, from what I recall). Since Augmented was a Lansdale operation, and CI was Maxwell Taylor, it's quite possible that there's stuff on this still at DOD.
