Subject: Conversation with Jeff Fogel and Miriam Nisbet
Today, I called Jeff Fogel, DOJ, and he patched me in with Miriam Nisbet, NARA, to discuss the current status of the ballistics matter. It was agreed that the next step was for NARA. Miriam will check on what the status is on the documentation project on the ballistics evidence and NARA's position on when Congress needs to notified and on what specific testing. She will get back to DOJ and NARA on these matters. Based on that information, DOJ will decide what their specific request will be to the Archives. At this point, another meeting of relevant agencies will be appropriate.
