Subject: Work at home

Body: Although I don't doubt the benefits of working at home, federal government personnel practice and law permit it only with the prior approval of . I have made exceptions in the past, but these were in situations where you had discussed your need in advance. Your announcement this morning that you had decided to work at home places me in an extremely awkward position. Although technically, you should be charged leave for the day, I will make an exception with the understanding that you clear these issues with me in advance.
