Subject: Work at home
Although I don't doubt the benefits of working at home, federal government personnel practice permits it only in certain circumstances and only with prior approval. I have granted such approval in the past in situations where you had discussed the issue with me in advance, and I was convinced that it was in the best interest of the office. Your announcement this morning that you had decided, without discussing the issue with me in advance, to work at home places me in an extremely awkward position. In the future, please consult with me in advance.
