I have located two documents that provide full rosters of personnel assigned to 316th INTC Det, including service numbers. We need to review this to pick out individuals we need to add to St. Louis search list (we could probably prioritize this). I also found another document confirming that Jones was 112 Grp S2 (intelligence officer), not S3 (operations officer) as he told HSCA. Question 1: in light of this knowledge, am I correct that the only morning report stuff we really need to see is for Naval Photo Center to try to get names of personnel assigned there? Question 2: if answer to Q1 is yes, is it worthwhile for us to spend $ for me to go to St. L.?
