Subject: Rankin's Son
I think that Rankin's son would be a great witness, particularly since you have had preliminary discussions with him about donating his father's papers. Even if he only came before the Board in LA to say a few words about his father, donate the records, and answer a few questions from the Board and accept their thanks, it would add greatly to the hearing. As you know, the date is now Tuesday, September 17th. We do not have a location, but it will be in LA. Do you think you could make an inquiry with him? Thanks.
