Subject: additional copies of portrait

Body: Hi Bill:I hope this e-mail message finds you well and rested--I hope you had a nice vacation!!I spoke with Earl McDonald at the Archives. You have the option of either obtaining a negative or having additional prints made.Option one: negative. Initially, this would be less expensive for you. However, because of the type of negative it is, prints that you subsequently make would have to be made at a professional photo lab. The bonus is you will be able to make unlimited clean copies in the future.Option two: additional prints. If you decide to go for the prints, I will need to know how many and what sizes you would like. I will forward this to Mr. McDonald.Payment: Mr. McDonald has an account with a company and he will put the job on his account. He will then send you the bill, or a copy of the bill, for reimbursement. Once he knows what you will be ordering, he can provide an exact cost for the job. I hope this information is helpful to you. Just let me know how you would like to proceed and I will inform Mr. McDonald.Take care,Eileen
