Subject: St. Louis Database...
Based on our discussion yesterday, I spoke with Chris this morning. We feel that if some additional sections are provided, the database can serve as "working papers" for tracking all of the follow-up activity & the creation of possible reports. Even though some of the other information will exist in my (new & wonderful) "Investigative Master Database", we think keeping/modifying it would be of great help in completing the project.What do you think Mr. Chet-Meister???
