Subject: Follow up action report/question
Manuel just asked me about those Cuba records currently in limbo at NARA II. I suppose I could add to my action list that I learned the NARA RIFing system and am now capable of creating RIFs. The bigger question is, what is the status of that whole thing? Is the Army going to TDY someone to declass them or what? If that is the case, when is it going to happen? Can we do anythng to speed up the process? Is it worth Manuel and I heading back up to NARA and continuing preliminary review? Please get back to me.
