Subject: FBI Congressional testimony
My solemn Labor Day weekend observances (channel-surfing) were invaded when I least expected it: Saturday morning on C-Span (or maybe C-Span2), I saw a rerun of Kevin O'Brien's testimony at a House Subcommittee hearing on access to Federal information. I caught only the tail end of O'Brien's testimony, which focused on FOIA implementation, but there was a reference to some previous discussion of the JFK Act as well. I believe that O'Brien's testimony, as well as that of the other witnesses (including his FOIA counterpart at the Pentagon), would be useful to review. Can we ask Eric to try to get ahold of this?
