Subject: Kathleen Cunningham request

I spoke w/Kathleen and got the record numbers (as opposed to the agency file numbers) for those items I was unsure of; all of the ten HSCA documents she requested were open, and I have put them in the mail to her today. There are three documents from her request list outstanding: two "179s" from the NARA-WC part of the collection (Martha is checking on these for me at NARA II), and one FBI document which Kevin is checking on. Kathleen seemed very pleased, and was even apologetic that the records had turned out to be open ones: she reiterated several times that she really thought these records were closed, and that it wasn't her intention to have us running around securing open documents for her. I assured her that she needn't feel badly about it and that we are always happy to help. Then I gave her Doug's and Brian's extension numbers...
