Subject: FBI information
(1) John Collingwood (sp?) is the head of the FBI's Office of Public and Congressional Affairs, to which the JFK Task Force is being transferred. He has mentioned to Carol Keeley that it might be appropriate for him to meet the Board members and/or senior ARRB staff. I told Carol that I would pass this suggestion to you.(2) After looking back on her notes from December 1993, Carol advises that the FBI consulted with Steve Tilley about how to handle NAR serials in its Church Committee file, and making rifs for wholly NAR serials was the outcome of that discussion. She also confirmed that the same approach was taken in processing the corresponding files for the Pike and Rockefeller Committees. We should have an FBI letter explaining this situation by Tuesday.
