Subject: 2nd conversation w/ Dr. James B. Rhoads re: 1966 inventory of JFK autopsy photos & x-rays
CALL REPORT Issue # 43Document's Author: Dave Montague/ARRB Date Created: 10/30/96Who initiated the call? Review Board's representative in the call: Dave Montague1966 Inventory of JFK Autopsy Photos & X-RaysSubject: 2nd conversation w/ Dr. James B. Rhoads re: 1966 inventory of JFK autopsy photos & x-raysDescription of the Call I spoke w/ Rhoads again today because I forgot to ask him about Patricia Eve Walkling who used to work for him at NARA. Rhoads told me he believes her married name is Patricia Eve Carr & that she has always referred to herself as "Eve" if that is any help. Rhoads was again very cordial & said he decided to search for any records he might have re: the inventory issue to make sure he gave me the most accurate information he could. I thanked him for his efforts & asked what records he found. Rhoads said he has notes from that interview & copies of documents the investigative reporter w/the Wall Street Journal provided him. He now recalls that the interview was held in 1991 & hopes this will help us find any article which may have been published from that interview. Rhoads also shared the following which he recalled based on reviewing his records which he will provide copies of if asked:-he thinks Evelyn Lincoln brought the materials for transfer from w/in an area of NARA in which she had an office (work area)-he feels it is conceivable that prior to the inventory process, the materials could have been turned over to Lincoln-he has a copy of the 1966 memo with the following names reflected w/in it: Burk Marshall, Frank Wozencraft, Angela Novello (of DOJ), Herman Kahn (of the Presidential Libraries; & now deceased), William Brewster (of GSA General Counsel) & Bob Bahmer-Novello had the key to open the locker-Wozencraft, Marshall & Novello departed the event soon after the transfer was doneRhoads said he'd be glad to answer any more specific questions asked of him. I told him that if he is contacted again by the Review Board, it would probably re: more in-depth questions; Rhoads said that would be fine.Dr. James B.
