Subject: deliveries to old executive office building and State Dept.
I am going home now to nurse my cold. Here is where things stand:David has signed the letter to be delivered. However, as of now he is playing phone tag with one of the key recipients of the letter, Bill Leary, and David's preference is to speak with Leary before we actually send the letter. If David speaks with Bill Leary this afternoon, and the letter can go out as is, he will so instruct Cathy. Eric can then deliver Ken Duncan's copy to the State Dept. and the President's and Leary's copies to Leary's office in the old executive office building. A member of the fbi team with independent access to the Hoover Building (that is, Kevin, Laura or Joan) should deliver the envelopes addressed to Carol Keeley and Louis Freeh (both envelopes can be left with Carol Keeley or one of the other members of the JFK Task Force. The envelope for Jamie Gorelick can go registered mail, return receipt requested. If David does not speak with Bill Leary this afternoon, we will just send the letter out tomorrow a.m. Could someone please send me an email or phonemail at the end of the day to let me know whether it goes? Thanks.
