Subject: Answer re: J.D. Tippit...
Bill Siebert of NPRC now has the file & said there is no record of a Court Marshal...He said he knows of no portion of the file that is classified ...Tippit's file is considered a "V.I.P." file (VIP files become the property of NARA through another process), but there is nothing that the public will not have access to as soon as the file is transferred to NARA (which is on going)...Bill also asked me to explain that records re: Court Marshals are public records to begin with making them easier to access than personnel records...He said such records should be in Washington,DC; probably w/ the respective agency involved...
