Subject: Sam Papich
While reading Newman's book, over the last two days, I came across a quote from the FBI liason to the CIA, Sam Papsich. Papich said the following " discussions of a plan to have a CIA or FBI man defect to Moscow," but he states the plan was not implemented " to his knowledge." He made these remarks to the Church Committee in May 1975. The RIF number for this interview is 157-10002-10152. Perhaps after review of the document it might be worth interviewing Papich if he is still alive.
