Subject: Update Icon for desktop
Please detach this above file into yourC:\WINDOWS\DESKTOP DirectoryA small bunny rabbit Icon should appear on your Windows 95 desktop. This Will update your wordperfect and Notes Settings files on the server. These files hold items such as your default font and what where the last 4 files you have used. Each time you login the files are copied from the server to your C:\ Now with this new program you can copy them back before you log off to keep your defaults that you may have changed. If you have any questions please let me know.
