Subject: Weekly(?) FBI team update
Actually, it's been more than a week since I sent you one of these, so I'll have this cover activities since the arbitrarily chosen date of December 1. Members of the FBI team, as members of the FBI team, have: been working on Compliance Program issues as related to the FBI; prioritizing HSCA subject-matters yet to be processed by the FBI; reviewing FBI records (principally BRILAB electronic surveillance transcripts and logs, and files on Mark Lane) to determine to what extent they should be processed under the JFK Act; working on "wrap-up" of the Hosty interview; reviewing records referred to the FBI from the HSCA numbered files in order to identify probable consent releases; coordinating with our CIA team and the HRG the release of or evidence-production* for CIA postponements in the FBI's core and related files; doing the same for FBI postponements in CIA records; determining status of referrals to FBI from Secret Service and LBJ Library; and preparing postponements in the core-and-related files for Board review. Of course, each member of the FBI team has responsibilities for other agencies (Secret Service, INS, Postal Service, IRS, Customs, ATF, main Treasury, various offices and divisions of main Justice, DEA, and others) or functions (FOIA officer, Compliance Program, meeting-manager, and many research projects unrelated to identification and release of FBI assassination records).
