I do not understand why she has divided issues up the way that she has and I don't understand exactly what she is asking the SS to do. I t appears to me to be internally confusing and inconsistent. When I have discussed it with her, her responses sound to me like double-talk and she speaks to me as if I am dense and can't understand plain English. I don't know whether the draft letter is very sophisticated or very sophistic. If you understand it let's send it. I am reluctant either to re-write it or to have Joan re-write it. Because it has been pending for far too long, I think Body: we need to move on it promptly. I welcome your suggestions and advice.
