FROM AN ACTUAL NEWSPAPER CONTEST WHERE ENTRANTS AGE 4 TO 15 WERE ASKED TOIMITATE "DEEP THOUGHTS BY JACK HANDEY":My young brother asked me what happens after we die. I told him we getburied under a bunch of dirt and worms eat our bodies. I guess I shouldhave told him the truth--that most of us go to Hell and burn eternally--butI didn't want to upset him. -Age 10When I go to heaven, I want to see my grandpa again. But he better havelost the nose hair and the old-man smell. -Age 5I once heard the voice of God. It said "Vrrrrmmmm." Unless it was just alawn mower. -Age 11 I don't know about you, but I enjoy watching paint dry. I imagine that thewet paint is a big freshwater lake that is the only source of water forsome tiny cities by the lake. As the lake gets drier, the population getsmore desperate, and sometimes there are water riots. Once there was a bigfire and everyone died. -Age 13I like to go down to the dog pound and pretend that I've found my dog. ThenI tell them to kill it anyway because I already gave away all of his stuff.Dog people sure don't have a sense of humor. -Age 14I believe you should live each day as if it is your last, which is why I don't have any clean laundry because, come on, who wants to wash clothes onthe last day of their life? -Age 15It sure would be nice if we got a day off for the president's birthday,like they do for the queen. Of course, then we would have a lot of peoplevoting for a candidate born on July 3 or December 26, just for the longweekends. -Age 8As you make your way through this hectic world of ours, set aside a fewminutes each day. At the end of the year, you'll have a couple of days saved up. -Age 7Democracy is a beautiful thing, except for that part about letting just anyold yokel vote. -Age 10Home is where the house is. -Age 6Often, when I am reading a good book, I stop and thank my teacher. That is,I used to, until she got an unlisted number. -Age 15It would be terrible if the Red Cross Bloodmobile got into an accident. No,wait. That would be good because if anyone needed it, the blood would beright there. -Age 5Give me the strength to change the things I can, the grace to accept thethings I cannot, and a great big bag of money. -Age 13I bet living in a nudist colony takes all the fun out of Halloween. -Age 13For centuries, people thought the moon was made of green cheese. Then theastronauts found that the moon is really a big hard rock. That's what happens to cheese when you leave it out. -Age 6Think of the biggest number you can. Now add five. Then, imagine if you hadthat many Twinkies. Wow, that's five more than the biggest number you couldcome
